

Watanabei Doublefile Viburnum

Viburnum plicatum tomentosum 'Watanabei'

An elegant shrub, blooming continuously through the season with lovely white flowers that rise just above the horizontal branches. A more compact, slow growing form of the species. Beautiful red-purple fall color, with very little fruit late in the season. Makes an excellent accent or specimen plant in the landscape.

Plant Specs

Zone: 5-7

Height: 4-6'

Width: 4-6'

Flower color: White

Bloom cycle:

Exposure: Full Sun

Petal count:

Flower form: