2023 SPRING DANCE RECITAL

WELCOME

Dear dancers, dance families and guests,

Thank you for joining us for the 2023 Spring Dance Recital. We are proud of the dancers who have worked so hard to get ready for this show - creating, collaborating with classmates, and today, bravely performing on stage. We are proud to continue to grow this community-based dance program where we strive to create a space for every student who wants to dance. Thank you again to all who make this program possible – enjoy the show!

- McKayla and Liana, Lead Dance Instructors

Thank you to our 2022-2023 dance assistants, Abha Manoj, Ana Plucar, Annette Guse, Chloe Ramstrom and Hannah Goldsmith. You are wonderful role models to our younger students and help us make the program run. We couldn't do it without you!

GRADUATING SENIORS

ANA PLUGAR

I have danced at the City of Plymouth Dance Program for twelve years. Within those twelve years I have performed, choreographed, and taught. I have taught as a dance assistant for four years. My favorite style to teach is jazz. I am graduating from Perpich Center for Arts Education this May with a major in dance. I will be attending College of Charleston, fall 2023, and will major in Dance and Business Administration.

HANNAH GOLDSMITH

I have danced for 12 years total, including 6 years with the city of Plymouth. I have also been a dance assistant for over 3 years. Musical Theater jazz is my favorite style to take and ballet is my favorite to teach. My post graduation plan is to attend Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa, where I plan to study American Politics.

CHLOE RAMSTROM

Throughout my ten years of dancing, I have learned so much about myself and world around me. I have also been a dance assistant for four years. Modern is my favorite style to take and tap is my favorite to teach. After high school, I will be attending the University of Minnesota Duluth and majoring in Geological Sciences.
