

SMALL FRUIT

Consort Black Currant | Ribes nigrum 'Consort'

Plant description

Ripens late in the season, black fruits with strong flavor, medium in size and borne in clusters. The plants are very productive, immune to white pine blister rust, and only moderately susceptible to powdery mildew. Developed by Agriculture Canada at Ottawa, Ontario in 1952.

Height: 4-6'

Spread: 4'

Exposure: Full Sun

Zone: 3-7