

Parkers Lake Rock Weir

The Parkers Lake Rock Weir was constructed to address sediment and nutrient deposition into Parkers Lake from drainage to the north. The weir slows water draining from storm sewer into Parkers Lake which allows sediment and nutrients to settle out behind the weir. The area of sediment and nutrient deposition is inspected regularly and is excavated when necessary.

Funding: City of Plymouth